Rule 144A Eligible: No.

AUSTRALIAN TAXATION DISCLOSURE

Stamp Duty: Any Australian stamp duty or similar taxes incurred at the time of issue of the Instruments will be for the account of the Issuer. Any Australian stamp duty or similar taxes incurred on a transfer of Instruments will be for the account of the relevant investors. As at the date of this Pricing Supplement and provided the Register is at all times maintained in New South Wales, no Australian stamp duty or similar taxes should be payable on the issue of the Instruments or any transfer of Instruments for full market value.

Interest Withholding Taxes: Subject to Condition 8, so long as the Issuer continues to be a non-resident of Australia and payments of principal and interest on the Instruments by the Issuer are not an outgoing in whole or in part incurred by the Issuer in carrying on a business at or through a permanent establishment in Australia (as defined in section 6(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of Australia), payments of principal and interest made under the Instruments will not be subject to Australian interest withholding tax.

Taxes: Investors should obtain their own taxation advice regarding the Australian taxation implications of investing in the Instruments.

Quotation of tax file numbers: The requirements contained in Part VA of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of Australia (which have been partly rewritten in subdivision 12-E of Part 2-5 of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 of Australia) relating to the quotation of tax file numbers should not apply to debentures (which would include the Instruments) issued by a non-resident body corporate which is not issuing the debentures in the course of carrying on business in Australia at or through a permanent establishment in Australia.

Quotation of Australian Business Numbers: On the assumption that the Issuer does nothing more than issue the Instruments into Australia in order to raise money in Australia for use in the Issuer's business outside Australia, the requirements contained in section 12-190 of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 of Australia relating to the quotation of Australian Business Numbers should not apply to the Instruments.

In the unlikely event that payment of principal and interest to holders of Instruments in respect of the Instruments are treated by the Australian Taxation Office as being made in the course or furtherance of an enterprise carried on in Australia by the Issuer, the Issuer intends to treat Austraclear

Limited, being the registered holder of the Instruments, as the enterprise making any relevant supply. In such event, provided that Austraclear Limited provides its Australian Business Number, no withholding will be required to be made by the Issuer from payments of principal and interest in respect of the Instruments.

Death Duties:

No Instruments will be subject to death, estate or succession duties imposed by Australia, or by any political sub-division or authority therein having power to tax, if held at the time of death.

Goods and Services Tax ("GST"):

Neither the issue nor receipt of the Instruments will give rise to a liability for GST in Australia on the basis that the supply of the Instruments will comprise an input taxed financial supply. Furthermore, neither the payment of principal or interest by the Issuer, nor the disposal of the Instruments would give rise to any GST liability in Australia.
